Icebreaker:

Everyone loves to share a good story about meeting a famous person. In your group time, take turns describing in great detail a circumstance when you met a famous person BUT without disclosing the famous person. Have the others try to guess who it was. If nobody has guessed correctly after 1 minute, share who it was and then have another person share his/her own "famous encounter".

Application:

As believers, we often see sharing our faith as a daunting and forced task for which we are under-prepared and unqualified. In reality, how are we already plenty equipped?

Consider the person or people who first shared Christ with you. What about your relationship or conversation with them persuaded you to trust and listen to them?

Have you shared the good news about Jesus with your "ONE"? Is he aware he is a sinner? Is she aware God made her and has a great plan for her life? Which circle would you start with to have a conversation with him? Ask God to give you the courage to do so.
